TREASURER:

[n/a]

SECRETARY:

Nothing to report.

CLUB CAPTAIN:

Rained all day for the Classic at Heart. The ride went from Prospect to Port Adelaide. ~150 bikes... Next run is to the Oakbank Hotel for Xmas lunch.

EDITOR:

Wants to give up to editorship by June at the latest due to other commitments...

REGALIA:

New caps available... If there is anything else desired, let Lyndi know.

REGISTRAR:

[n/a]

LIBRARIAN:

Workshop manual available... New Oily Rag... New Smoke Signal... Don has donated a book "A History of the Vintage M/C Club of Australia (NSW)"... Looks nice!

FEDERATION:

Not much to report... Attended the last meeting... Just over 1,000 entries for Bay to Birdwood... Require 1,300 to break even! So profit from previous year's surplus has been taken to break even... There will be a rehash of rules for the Historic Registration scheme, but currently its all been very secret squirrel...

GENERAL BUSINESS:

Peter Sinfield has donated a 6 pack of "Norton Lager" ...

Classic @ Heart had a total of 4k people and raised $1,200 with the remainder to advertising, etc... Very successful... Mayor called to say how pleased he was and that he wants the event to be held annually...

Simon Amos desires ride details and photos for his newsletter... Its a good opportunity for us to connect...

Discussion between Owen and Chris Berry regarding frame straightening....

Owen gave a talk on Amal carbs...

Raffle winner was Murray Norton.

CLOSED:

The meeting was closed at 8:20pm.
